Dedication

Most of us only know Mr. John Wills as a teacher, seldom realizing the time and effort that he has given to Briarcliff in other capacities. When modular scheduling was new at BHS, Mr. Wills was responsible for making up the master schedule and now when he's not teaching Physics and Physical Science, he is untangling computerized conflicts as well as pursuing post-graduate work at the State University of New York at New Paltz.

And so we dedicate this book to a person without whom we could not get along, one whose work is rarely acknowledged, our unsung hero . . . Mr. Wills.

Introduction

1973 marks the graduation of Briarcliff's fiftieth senior class and the beginning of Briarcliff's second half-century. This is a time to look backward, as well as forward, to see the things that Briarcliff has stood for and will always stand for. Though papers, modules, course conflicts will be left behind, teachers, faces, moments of realization shall always remain.

Darest thou now O soul,

Walk out with me toward the unknown region,

Where neither ground is for the feet nor any path to follow?

No map there, nor guide,

Nor voice sounding, nor touch of human hand,

Nor face with blooming flesh, nor lips, nor eyes, are in that land.

Dear Audrey,

It's really strange to think back & to realize that alot of time ago in 6th grade we were real good friends & then for 5 yrs. we hardly spoke at all. Just think if we didn't have Gym. together, & both despise it so much we still might not be speaking. But we are & I'm especially glad I got to know you again. It was so "delightful" driving around with you before you had to go to work in that horrid place. Since you'll be next door you'll be pretty close so you better come down to Gulane & see me. My dearest Audrey,
The time has come at last to go away from here - Sometimes I guess we've kept on top of things all along, and even though at times things were strange - they've ended up pretty well - and I do hope to see you out in the West - we can take weekend

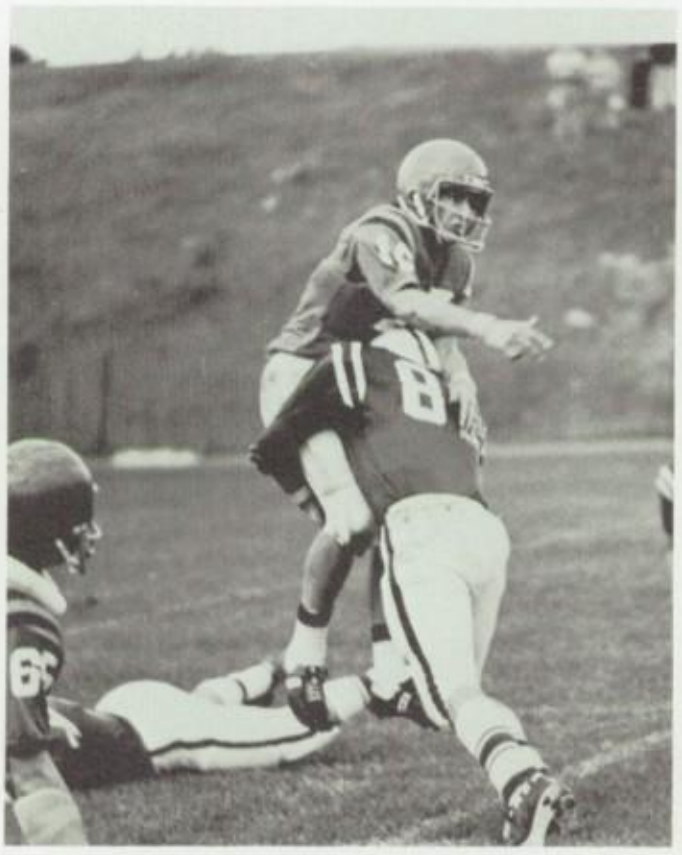
Junior Varsity, 2nd row: Coach O'Hagan, Tom Sullivan, Dan Eaves, Jeff Glascott, Jon Fleming, Billy Weber, John Mannix, Steve Simmons, Kent Seaman, Doug Angst, Bobby Leibacher, Keith Florent, Coach O'Keefe. 1st row: Jim Camberato, Jeff Martin, Steve Leggett, Ricky Dunkerton, Paul Leggett, Tom Mannix, John O'Brien, Joe Cavaleri, Fred Bricetti, John Ruben, Dan Head, Tom Stark.

This year's Bears applied themselves more to the game of football than the 3-5 season indicates. The team displayed a respect they had for a man and the pride they had for our school. Victory came after three losses and with six injured starters the Bears next upset Alexander Hamilton 14-6. Two games later they showed a desire that almost stifled an undefeated unscored upon Pleasantville team. Led by at least seven seniors, those ten weeks showed an effort that will prove more valuable to them than almost anything else in the years ahead. These seniors leave behind a tribute to what they've gone through and a hope for a better season in 1974.



Field Hockey

One of the finest hockey teams to grace the annals of Briarcliff sports history was led to an overall 8-2 record by the spirited leadership of Mrs. Sorenson, co-captains Sharon Joyce and Skeezie Schutte, and the cheerful skill of a predominantly senior squad. The first team to ever reach Section I quarter-finals, we finished the season by the addition of a WICC League co-champion trophy to the Briarcliff collection. It will remain a tangible reminder of frosty autumn afternoons, orange slices and exuberance, good times to be recalled.

Activities

These are not to be cherish'd for themselves,
They fill their hour, the dancers dance, the musicians play for them,
The show passes.

The B.C.G.

The Briarcliff Cooperative Government was designed to fit the mode of the school. The remodeling of the student Council provided a chance for better representation and a cohesiveness between students and faculty.

Through Activities and several innovative programs, the B.C.G. has brought about a higher level of awareness of the needs of our school and under President Arthur Siegel, has sought to eliminate the overall apathy and stagnation of the traditional student council.

You know that I love you so much and that I'll miss you plenty when you leave for school. It's really sad signing your year-book and I feel like I'm about to cry. Thanks for being such a good sister. I remember all the fights that we've had but I know that in the future we'll be better towards each other, what can I say but that I hope I see you out there. !!! The Junior Variety Show

The juniors again proved capable of producing a successful Variety Show and under the direction of Bev Spencer, Peter Deneen, Pat Moffit, April Facciolo, and Tom Fitzgerald, this year's show brought forth much new talent.

The senior girls' memorable rendition of Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy, a spoof on the media center, a tale of two bees, much good music, and a pervading sentiment of nostalgia set the overall atmosphere, as curtains closed to enthusiastic applause.

Audrey,
Well here is a real jerk who will never live this costume down.
Congradulations on your graduation and keeping your sanity in this prison for 4 years. Have a great time at college it should be beautiful out there.
Bye & good Luck

"Breathes there a man, with soul so dead,
Who never to himself has said,
This is my own, my native land!
If such there breathe, go mark him well;
For him no minstrel raptures swell;

Living shall forfeit fair renown,
And, doubly dying shall go down
To the vile dust, from whence he sprung,
Unwept, unhonour'd, and unsung."
